

Dear LFTB Family,

A few weeks ago, we had a young man give a testimony in our Sunday night bible study. His name is John Contino and he has been incarcerated and paroled from the Texas Department of Corrections.

John's testimony was so powerful I have asked him to come back to LFTBCC to share on Sunday morning, December 3rd. It will not be a long testimony because I will still be preaching, but I truly believe this is going to be a great blessing for our church.

Let's all try to bring a guest that morning. John will be sharing about how the Lord has saved him and changed his life from one of violence and crime to a life of love and Christ. It is truly a testimony of God's grace.

Have a great week and may this week be a fruitful one in your life.

Brother Dale
