

Dear LFTB Family,

I have never been prouder of being a member of Living For The Brand than when Jeff Ingram sent me a text with the total of the offering last Sunday. We received a little over $15,000 so far.

Once again, I am reminded how selfless and giving our church really is. While we are beginning to ramp up an offering for the completion of the Arena Roof, your focus was not about our needs but about the needs of others.

We are also about to start sending teams to the Texas Gulf Coast with Samaritan's Purse. If you are wanting to participate in this effort, just stop off at the table in the Welcome Center and talk to Clay or Carrie Clark. They will give you more information on getting involved.

I love you,

Brother Dale
