

Dear LFTB Family,

What do these dates have in common (1248, 1306, 1689, 1792, 1836, 1844, 1914, 1936, 1960, 1974, 1981, 1988, 1989, 1992, 1994, 2011)? They all represent the times in which people predicted that the second coming of Christ would occur. Jesus told us, “No one knows the hour”, but he also told us we could tell the time of His coming just like we can understand the seasons of the year.

LFTB Family, I know summer is on it’s way. “How?” because yesterday I was working outside and it was hot. The more I worked, the more I sweat and the more I sweat the more miserable I became. The same is true today, when it comes to knowing Jesus is on his way, we are living in the last days. Not the last days when everything will be gone, but, the last days of grace mentioned in the bible. The last days, before Jesus calls us home. The last days, before this world is going to be in the Terrible Tribulation. The last days, before the antichrist will rule a “one world government”. The last days, before Jesus returns to establish His throne on the Throne of David.

I know many of you are sweating and becoming miserable because we live in a fallen world that is about ready to come to an abrupt halt. Like the man said, “You can fall off a ten-story building and it won’t kill you. It’s not the jumping or the falling that will kill you, it is the sudden stop that kills you”. Our nation and our world are going through some rough days and it seems like the devil might be winning the battle, but let me remind you, Jesus has already won the war.

This week as you are reminded how corrupt this old world is, just think about your future and the promise we have in a resurrected Savior.

Have a good week,

Brother Dale
